

Leviticus Fund Donor Privacy Policy

The Leviticus Fund is committed to respecting the privacy of our donors at all times. The following policy outlines what information is collected by Leviticus and how that information is used. The policy also underscores Leviticus' long-standing commitment to not share or sell any donor information to a third party.

Information Collected:

- Contact information – name, address, phone number, email address, professional affiliation
- Information concerning how you heard about Leviticus
- Information you may have provided regarding questions, comments or suggestion about our organization and its community development work
- Your request to receive periodic updates on Leviticus' lending

How Information is Used:

Leviticus does not sell, rent or lease any personal information about our donors to any other organization. Our internal systems maintain the confidentiality of our donors and donor information is used exclusively for internal purposes to enhance Leviticus' communication with its supporters.

Any credit card information received from a donor is used only for donation and payment processing and is not retained for any other purpose.

Removing Your Name From Our Mailing List:

Leviticus distributes information about our community development lending and organizational updates to our donors and investors. Please contact Maureen Martin at mmartin@leviticusfund.org if you wish to be removed from our mailing list.

Contacting Us:

If you have any comments or questions about Leviticus' donor privacy policy, please contact Maryann Sorese, Development & Communications Officer, at msorese@leviticusfund.org or call (914) 909-4422.
